- Ultra-Low Light Performance: Equipped with a large 1/1.8" CMOS sensor and an F1.0 fixed aperture lens, the OwlView Bullet Camera captures maximum light to produce bright, clear images even in near-total darkness. Say goodbye to grainy, washed-out night footage.
- Wise-ISP Technology: Utilizing advanced AI algorithms, Wise-ISP technology enhances image clarity and brightness while minimizing digital noise and smearing. This ensures that every detail is captured with precision, regardless of the time of day.
- 4K Resolution: With a resolution of 4K (3840*2160 @20fps), the OwlView Bullet Camera delivers sharp, detailed video that makes identifying faces and other critical details easier than ever.
- 24/7 Color Imaging: Unlike traditional cameras that rely on infrared or white lights for night vision, the OwlView Bullet Camera maintains full-color imaging around the clock, offering superior situational awareness without the need for IR or white lights. The camera also features a white light illuminator with up to 30m range for enhanced nighttime surveillance.
- Dynamic Range: The camera’s 120dB true Wide Dynamic Range (WDR) ensures excellent performance in challenging lighting conditions, effectively balancing out shadows and highlights for more accurate images.
- Robust Design: Built to withstand the elements, the OwlView Bullet Camera is IP67 weatherproof, making it an ideal choice for both indoor and outdoor installations. Its compact, rugged design adds an extra layer of security.

- Easy Integration: Compatible with a wide range of network protocols and management systems, this camera integrates seamlessly into existing security setups, offering flexible and scalable solutions for any environment.
